

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Special Circular to the College Press.

April 30, 1900.

It is greatly to be desired that all periodicals should be addressed exactly as follows: "University Club Library, No. 1 West 54th Street, New York City." Each outgoing board of every undergraduate journal, which has once been placed on the Club's subscription list, is requested to notify its successor that the subscription is designed to be renewed indefinitely. Annual bill should be mailed when each new board takes control, and no paper should be discontinued without a positive order to that effect.

Publishers, booksellers, and others who may receive "Library Bulletin No. 8," with this appendix marked, are requested to take notice of the fact that the present librarian (whose term began March 20, 1889) will withdraw from the service of the Club on April 30, 1900. No mail matter should hereafter be addressed to him personally at that place; and such dealers as may have his name on their mailing-lists will confer a favor by erasing it.

During these eleven years, my correspondence in the Library's behalf has had no other signature than the word "Librarian," and I have continuously requested that all mail matter be addressed to that title only. Though I do not know

No. 1 West 54th Street, New York City."

[Washington Square has been my place of residence for nearly twenty-four years, and I expect to continue living at the northwest corner of that Square, until September 1, 1916. All personal mail matter should therefore be addressed to me there: "No. 107 Waverly Place, New York City."] by the Auditing Committee semi-annually. He shall pay all bills on the certificate of their correctness by the House Committee. He shall notify persons elected to membership of their election.

Library bills are paid monthly by Treasurer's checks, mailed about the 25th of each month. To ensure such payment, bills must be in the librarian's hands on the first day of that month, to be certified as correct by him, and to be audited for payment by the Chairman of the Committee on Literature and Art. Hence, while a bill arriving on the last day of the month will be paid in less than four weeks, a bill which comes two days later may require about eight weeks to go through the same routine. It is important that the identical bill which has been authenticated by two official signatures should be receipted and re-mailed to the Treasurer of the Club, as soon as the check arrives.

year, which shall be printed and distributed to members five days before the Annual Meeting, and shall report at other times if required.

4. The Council shall meet once a month, except during the months of July and August, and Special meetings may be called by order of the President or of the House Committee. A majority of its members shall constitute a quorum of the Council.

5. The Council shall prescribe rules for the admission of strangers to the privileges of the Club.

6. The Council may fill any vacancy in its body by election of a member to hold office until the next annual election.

7. The Council shall have power to remit penalties for offenses against the Rules and for unintentional violations of the Constitution.

VII.

MEETINGS AND ELECTIONS.

1. There shall be an Annual Meeting of the Club on the third Saturday of March in each year. At the Annual Meeting, to be held on the second Saturday of May, 1879, twenty members shall be elected by ballot, who shall constitute the Council, and who shall hold office as provided in Article VI. of this Constitution, and thereafter at each Annual Meeting five members shall be elected by ballot as members of the Council (to replace the outgoing class), whose term of office shall be four years. Vacancies in the other classes shall be also filled at such meeting by ballot, and a majority of the votes cast shall be necessary to elect.

2. Officers and members of the Council shall hold office during the term for which they are elected and until their successors are chosen.

3. If any vacancy shall occur in the Council, such vacancy may be supplied by election, by ballot, at a Special Meeting of the Club, to be called by the Council, provided that at least ten days' notice of such election shall have been posted.

4. Upon the written request of twenty-five members, the Council shall call a Special Meeting of the Club, which request, as also the notice of any Special Meeting, shall state the object for which the meeting is called, and at a Special Meeting no subject not so stated shall be considered. Notices of any meeting, whether Annual or Special, shall be posted in the rooms of the Club for one week. Fifty members shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Club.

VIII.

QUALIFICATIONS OF MEMBERS.

1. Any person nominated after February 1, 1880, shall be eligible to membership in this Club who shall have received from a University or College a degree, to obtain which, in regular course, at least three years' residence and study are required, or who shall have received an honorary degree from such University or College, or who shall have graduated at the United States Military Academy or at the United States Naval Academy; provided that, in the case of the holder of an honorary degree, the candidate shall be distinguished in Literature, Art, Science, or the Public Service; and provided that, except in the case of the holder of an honorary degree, at least three years shall have elapsed since the conferring of the degree, or since graduation.

2. As to persons nominated before February 1, 1880, the provisions adopted May 10, 1879, shall apply.

3. The Council shall determine what degrees from foreign Universities, and from what foreign Universities, shall qualify the holder for membership; and a list of such degrees shall be posted in the office of the Club. The holder of any degree named on such list shall be eligible to membership.

IX.

COMMITTEE ON ADMISSIONS.—ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

1. There shall be a Committee on Admissions, to consist of twenty-one members, seven of whom shall be elected by ballot at each Annual Meeting of the Club, to replace the outgoing class and to take office at the expiration of the term of such outgoing class. The term of office of the members of this Committee shall be three years, or until the third Annual Meeting after their election.

2. A majority of the votes cast shall be necessary to elect; and vacancies in any class shall be filled by the Committee. Eleven members shall constitute a quorum, and two negative votes shall be a rejection of a candidate. No member of the Council shall be a member of this Committee. The names of the Committee shall remain posted in a conspicuous place in the Club rooms. The name, residence, and college or place of instruction of every person proposed for admission, with the names of the members proposing and seconding, shall be exposed in a conspicuous place in the rooms for at least two weeks. The matter shall then be referred to the Committee on Admissions, the proceedings of which Committee shall be secret and confidential. It shall be the duty of the Committee, after careful consideration and examination, to vote upon each name separately and by ballot.

3. No member of this Committee shall propose any candidate for membership of the Club. On the election of each new member the Committee shall forthwith notify the same to the Secretary of the Club.

4. The number of Resident members of the Club shall not exceed seventeen hundred.

5. The number of Non-resident members of the Club shall not exceed thirteen hundred.

6. Any member whose name shall have been upon the roll of the Club for fifteen consecutive years shall be entitled to become a life member on the payment of $1000. The number of life members of the Club shall not exceed one hundred. Whenever a member becomes a life member a vacancy shall be created thereby in the resident or non-resident membership, as the case may be. Life members shall have the rights and privileges, and be subject to all the penalties of the regular members, but shall forever be exempt from all annual dues.

X.

RESIGNATIONS.

Resignations of membership shall be made to the Secretary in writing.

Such resignation shall not be accepted until all indebtedness to the Club of the member resigning shall have been discharged.

XI.

DUES.

1. The entrance fee shall be two hundred dollars for Resident members, and one hundred dollars for Non-resident members; but every Non-resident member who shall become a Resident member shall pay to the Treasurer an amount equal to the difference between his original entrance fee and the entrance fee for Resident members at the time of his admission as a Non-resident member; and a failure to pay said sum shall be considered a failure to pay dues, and shall subject the member in default to the penalties prescribed in Section 8 of this article.

2. The annual dues of Resident members shall be seventy-five dollars, and of Non-resident members thirty-five dollars, payable semi-annually, in advance, on the first days of March and September.

3. Persons not residing or having a place of business within twenty miles of the City Hall, in the City of New York, may be elected as Non-resident members.

4. No Non-resident members elected after April 1, 1880, shall be entitled to vote at any meeting of the Club or to hold office.

5. Any Resident member who may remove his residence and place of business to a distance of at least twenty miles from the City Hall, in the City of New York, shall, on written notice to the Secretary of such removal and upon receipt of advice from him, become a Non-resident member, and any Non-resident member who may remove his residence or place of business to within twenty miles of the said City Hall shall become a Resident member, and shall notify the Secretary in writing of such removal; but any Non-resident member elected prior to April 1, 1880, residing or doing business within twenty miles of said City Hall, shall continue to be a Non-resident member, unless he may remove his residence to the City of New York.

6. Candidates elected, on payment of the entrance fee and of the dues for the current half-year, shall become members of the Club, and the election of any candidate shall be void if he fail to make such payment within thirty days after notice of his election is mailed, addressed to him at the place given as his residence on the posted list of candidates.

7. Offices of the Army and Navy eligible to membership who shall be elected after February 9, 1884, shall be considered as Non-resident members, except that, when ordered on service outside the limits of the United States, or when stationed at a post distant more than two hundred and fifty miles from New York

City for a period longer than one year, their dues shall be remitted during the period of such service.

8. The names of all the members who shall fail to pay their semi-annual dues on or before the first days of April and October shall be then posted in a conspicuous place in the Club House; and, if such dues are not paid on the first days of May and November thereafter, such members shall cease to be members of the Club; subject, however, to the provisions of Article VI., Section 7, of the Constitution.

THE LIBRARY.

REPORT FOR THE YEAR

FROM MARCH 1, 1899, TO FEBRUARY 28, 1900.

The accessions of the present financial year are registered in the catalogue as Nos. 15,836 to 17,340.

Of these 1504 new volumes, 413 were presented, 171 were made up of current periodicals bound at a cost of $288.70, 4 were Club memorabilia (bound for $6.40), and the other 927 were bought at a cost of $2246.67.

The growth of the Library during the eleven years in which the present librarian has had charge of it (10,810 volumes, registered from No. 6530, in March, 1889, to No. 17,340 in February, 1900) is shown in the following summary :

Totals for eleven years,			6768	1271	2771	10,810	$18,880

The second column of the foregoing table refers to the binding of periodicals and pamphlets, whose original cost is not considered. The last column is derived from the annual statements of the Treasurer, which did not cover exactly the same months in either of the first three cases. His financial year ended on April 30 in 1890 and 1891; and in 1892 it covered only the ten months ending with February. Nevertheless, it is believed that the actual outlay for the 8039 volumes bought or bound during the eleven years is very closely represented by the Treasurer's total of $18,880.

The Treasurer's report of the present year shows actual payments of $2368.14 for books and binding, while the Library record of outlays is $2246.67 for books and $486.55 for binding. This discrepancy of $367 is larger than the one which usually results from the fact that payments are never quite identical with the recorded purchases of the same twelve months.

The outlay for binding includes $87.90 for 40 volumes in the list of 413 gifts, $103.55 for the rebinding of 104 old volumes, mostly sets of standard works, and $295.10 for the 164 volumes mentioned on previous page. These items make up the recorded total of $486.55; but, as the sum of $18.90 was spent in binding 17 volumes whose cost in paper covers was $53.91, the whole number passing through the bindery was 226. These last-named 17 are included among the 927, as purchased at a cost of $77.81.

Of the 413 gifts, 278 are accredited to 64 individual donors named in the first section of the following list (the star designating 16 non-members of the Club), and 128 are accredited to 38 institutions or official persons or groups named in the second section of the list, though 45 of these books in the Princeton and Harvard groups were really given by members of the Club. An express package from Harrisburg, Pa., brought 5 of the 7 gifts whose donors are unknown.

The names or titles of 102 donors follow, with numerals representing the volumes contributed:

Among the 413 gifts of the year are 80 which may be classed as government and society documents, and 84 which may be classed as memorabilia of the following colleges: Harvard, 8; Yale, 6; Princeton, 39; Columbia, 2; Brown, 4; Williams, 6; University of Pennsylvania, 2; Dartmouth, 1; Hamilton, 4; Lafayette, 1; Michigan University, 1; New York University, 8; University of Virginia, 1; Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 1. Twelve fraternity books have been presented,—one of them for Zeta Psi and the rest for D. K. E.

The largest gift of the year, 137 volumes, was from Mr. J. F. Loubat, a life member of the Club and resident of Paris, comprising a set of the French classics in 74 octavo volumes, uniformly bound in ornamental half-calf; 13 volumes of Walpole's works in similar binding, and a large number concerning the antiquities of Mexico. He also persuaded a fellow-antiquarian residing in that country, Mr. Alfredo Chavero, to present the Library with a copy of his "Interpretación del Códice Borgiano," a privately printed folio of 479 pages.

"Art and architecture at the Chicago Exposition of 1893" (Philadelphia: Barrie) was presented by Mr. Leonard Chenery, in portfolio parts, which were afterwards bound in two folio volumes by the Library,—the whole cost of the work being $126. Another of the costly and ornate subscription works published by Barrie was presented to the Library in December, by Mr. Frank Cunningham: an illustrated English translation of Molière, 11 quarto volumes, bound in morocco and gilt.

Cards to the number of 4078 have been written and inserted in the catalogue drawers,—an average of nearly five cards to each of the 871 new titles included among the 1504 accessions of the year. This raises the total number of cards to more than 40,000. On March 13, 1899, a contract was made with the Library Bureau, of Boston, for copying the catalogue by typewriter, at the rate of $10.50 per thousand cards. The preliminary editorial revision, needed to put these cards in uniform shape for the printer, has not yet been begun.

The number of books bought for a dollar or less each was 222; those costing more than a dollar, but not more than two dollars, 320; costing more than two, but not more than three, dollars, 153; costing more than three, but less than five, dollars, 167. There were 65 higher-priced volumes, costing in the aggregate $510.35.

Of these 927 purchased books, 530 were classed as octavos and 289 as duodecimos, making 819 of the two commoner sizes. There were 46 quartos, 19 folios, and 43 of the smaller sizes. The leading dates of publication were as follows: 1900, 53; 1899, 507; 1898, 83; 1897, 36; 1896, 19; 1890-95, 77; 1880-89, 59; earlier, or not dated, 93.

Grouped under the 10 chief headings of the decimal-classification system, the year's 927 purchases may be exhibited as follows: 1, Philosophy, 15; 2, Religion, 27; 3, Sociology, 193; 4, Philology, 8; 5, Natural science, 39; 6, Useful arts, 37; 7, Fine arts, 81; 8, Literature, 171; 9, History (including biography and geography), 345; 10, General works, 11. The special section on military history, and the college memorabilia, comprise fully half the books under the third class.

The most expensive book bought during the year was Captain Brinkley's "Japan" ($60), described and illustrated by native writers and artists, and having its ten sections bound in a variety of ornamental cloths, according to the Japanese custom. Other notable purchases were the following: Bien's new State Atlas of Pennsylvania ($20), Memoirs of Casanova (12 vols., $60), Pecorone of Ser Giovanni (3 vols., $30), Mott's Erie railway ($15), Harper's history of the war with Spain ($12), Leslie's Greater New York (3 vols., $30).

Subscriptions to 187 periodicals for the calendar year 1900 were renewed through one of the news companies at a cost of $836.95, divided as follows: American, 106 (6 of them duplicated), $345.90; British, 56, $296.52; French, German, Italian, and Spanish, 25, $194.53. Other periodicals, dated in 1899 or earlier, cost $81.75. The 17 college journals were also paid for directly to their publishers ($50)—the subscriptions in three cases covering two college years. The replacement of missing numbers cost $13.89. Thus, the total outlay for journals was $982.59. With this may be compared the expenditures of the House Committee for daily newspapers, $664.87.

The cost of printing "Library Bulletin No. 7" (1000 copies) was $35, and of distributing the same, $8.50; 1500 book-plates, $16.90; annual subscription to Mercantile Library, $55; postage and miscellaneous, $6.14,—a total for the six items of $121.54.

The cost of moving the books from Twenty-sixth Street to Fifty-fourth Street, April 19-27, was $174.50; set of 208 trays in librarian's alcove, to hold the cards of catalogue, $610; book-braces and supports, label-holders and labels, letter-scales, cards, and other supplies, $148.25; refitting of shelves in alcoves, $107.50; moving and refitting of shelves and racks in storage loft, $23; library step-ladders and newspaper racks and files, $121; sixty-four pamphlet boxes for magazine room, $114.45; fifty-three portfolio files, $56.80. These ten items make a total of $1356 for extraordinary expenses of the Committee; and much of the amount might be fairly transferred to the construction and equipment account of the new house.

A combination of the totals of the three preceding paragraphs makes the $2460.13 recorded in Treasurer's statement as expended by Committee on Literature and Art for other things than books and binding (which cost $2368.14). In the previous year's statement, the corresponding figures were $1212.85 and $1888.61.

All members of the University Club are invited by the Committee to write recommendations of books (fiction excepted) which they consider worthy of purchase for the Library. Three current novels are received from the Mercantile Library, every Tuesday noon, for a three weeks' term. Members desiring particular books should leave titles of the same on librarian's desk not later than Saturday evening.
